

|                                                                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Help bring some light to my life. Maybe you can meet me in the middle? |
|                                                                        |
| Clues                                                                  |
| Something in the eye of the beholder, it is said _ _ _ _ X _           |
| Deep gorge _ _ _ _ _ X                                                 |
| Grumpy, e.g. _ _ X _ _                                                 |
| Canine's canine X _ _ _                                                |
| Bird or bellicist _ X _ _                                              |
| One of 18 on the course _ _ _ X                                        |
| Common yoga position _ _ X _ _                                         |
| You can use it to check yourself out _ _ X _ _ _                       |
| Mythical musician _ _ _ X _ _ _                                        |
| Carolina footballer _ _ _ X _ _ _                                      |
| You might tie one around a gift _ _ _ X _ _                            |
| Religious day of rest _ X _ _ _ _ _                                    |
| Smooths over, mechanically _ _ _ X _                                   |
| Viper or cobra _ _ X _ _                                               |
| Pair of stockings, informally _ X _                                    |
| A final kind of "song" _ _ X _                                         |
| Detroit baseballer X _ _ _ _                                           |
| Heavy spender, in gaming or gambling lingo _ _ _ _ X                   |
|                                                                        |
| X > ? < X                                                              |
| Anthology show                                                         |
| Something idiomatically uncommon                                       |
| Chicagoan                                                              |

|                                  |
|----------------------------------|
| Palme d'Or winner                |
| Novel from the view of an animal |
| English band                     |
| Marvel hero                      |
| National park                    |
| Space object                     |